

MARCH 2009

VERANDA

THE LIBRARY

David Phoenix/Rose Tarlow

When it came time to design Greystone's Library, Rose Tarlow called on longtime colleague David Phoenix to take the lead. The two set out to create the quintessential reading room. Sourcing many furnishings from the Rose Tarlow-Melrose House collection, they brought in antiques and overstuffed seating in a monochromatic palette. Windows provide abundant light and a fireplace reinforces the romantic notion of a room for contemplation.

above: Sofa, Wing Chair & Fabrics, Coffee Table: Rose Tarlow-Melrose House. Throw Pillows: Ebanista. Globes, Library Table, Double Stairway: John J. Nelson Antiques. Ladder: Paul Ferrante. Sisal: Stark. Antique Rug: J. Ioulan. left: Armchair & Fabric, Mirror, Coffee Table: Rose Tarlow-Melrose House. Fireplace: Phoenician Stone. Obelisks: John J. Nelson. Antiques, Lantern: Paul Ferrante. Three Prints, Painting: Lacy Primitive and Fine Art. Plants: David Jones. SPONSORS: Ebanista, Phoenician Stone.

